ORIGIN

1. Foreign ships putting into Constantza recently have been refused the export licenses which they need in order to obtain fuel oil in that port.
 2. Foreign steamship companies may, however, secure fuel oil in Constantza if arrangements are made with "Sovfracht" in Moscow. Payments in foreign currency are made directly to Moscow.
 3. Foreign vessels using port facilities at Constantza are required to make payment in foreign currencies, while Soviet ships are entirely exempted from harbor dues.
